
Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1872, by J. Q. A. TRESIZE, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

National Lincoln Monument.

South East View, Photographed from the Monument itself by J. Q. A. TRESIZE, Springfield, Illinois.

OAK RIDGE CEMETERY, - - - SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS.

Square base of Monument, 72 feet 6 inches. Extreme Length including the Catacomb on the North, and Memorial Hall on the South, 119 feet and 6 inches. Height from the grade line to top of Terraced Platform where the Obelisk begins, 15 feet and 10 inches. From beginning of Obelisk to the Apex, 82 feet, 6½ inches. The four Pedestals of Statuary, 28 feet, 4 inches. Pedestal where Mr. Lincoln stands, 35 feet, 6 inches. Total height from grade line to Apex of Obelisk, 98 feet, 4½ inches. Height of Lincoln Statue, 11 feet. Cost of Monument, $136,550. Four Groups of Statuary, $13,700 each Lincoln's Statue, $13,700, and Coat of Arms, $1,500, making a total cost of $206,550.

LARKIN G. MEAD, Designer, W. D. RICHARDSON, Contractor.